

European Week for Waste Reduction: Sustainable Textiles

Belfast
City Council

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY
BELFAST

Date

Event

Tuesday 22nd November

Panel Discussion: 'Does Fashion have to Cost the Earth?'

Join key leaders in our fashion and sustainable textiles industry to discuss the topic: 'Does Fashion have to Cost the Earth?'. Panelists include individuals from Wrap, Ulster University, Another World Belfast and Dr. Laura Steele from Queen's University.

Panel Discussion will be held in the Blue Sky Room, One Elmwood at 6pm. Register here.

Wednesday 23rd November

'Another World Belfast' Pop-up Swap Shop

Come along to One Elmwood, where you can find 'Another World Belfast' Pop-Up Swap Shop. All items are £10 each or £5 if you bring a piece of clothing to swap.

Pop-Up Swap Shop will take place from 10am to 4pm in One Elmwood Foyer.

Rags Official Vintage

Kilo Event on Wednesday 23rd November- paying for clothing by weight.
20% discount from 21st - 25th November.

Located in the One Elmwood Building. Brand new website here.

Big Autumn Clean Up

SU Volunteer and the Sustainability Team are joining forces to host the annual Big Autumn Clean Up. Come along to the Physical Education Centre for 1pm, and we will finish up in One Elmwood for pizza after the litter-pick.

Meeting at the Physical Education Centre, 12:30pm. Register here.

Thursday 24th November

Belfast
City Council

Screening of 'The True Cost' Movie

In partnership with Belfast City Council, the Sustainability Team are hosting a screening of the movie 'The True Cost' which delves into the world of fast fashion. Popcorn and juice provided.

Screening of 'The True Cost' will take place in The Cube, One Elmwood, 6pm. Register here.