

Research Governance, Ethics and Integrity Webpage Directory

- Trusted Research covers topics including: ATAS, Safeguarding in Research, Export Control, The Nagoya Protocol, The NSI Act and Legislation and legal requirements. There are also links to case studies and links to Further Guidance.
- Human Tissue includes: Human Tissue Standard Operating Procedures, Licencing Details, Relevant Material covered by the Act, Quality Manual, Regulations and Policies and Training Schedule.
- Sponsorship contains information on applying for QUB sponsorship, Peer Review and study information involving Health and Social Care Research / Trusts.
- The Ethics page has links to the QUB Policy on Ethical Approval of Research, Information on how to categorise your project and establish which Research Ethics Committee it should be submitted to and Considerations when completing your application.
- Clicking the link for Faculty Research Ethics Committees will bring you to information about the committees and the application process as well as the documents required to be included in the application.
- Standard Operating Procedures – This opens a links page for all of the non HTA Research Governance, Ethics and Integrity Standard Operating Procedures.
- Policies, Procedures and Guidelines contains information and links to current University Regulations and Policies relating to research. Also contains information and links to other guidelines relating subjects such as Authorship and Publication, Research in conflict zones etc.
- The Training Link is updated as and when new training or updates are available. The current highlight is webinars and workshops for Authorship and Publication led by industry expert Dr. Jane Alfred.
- Animal Research directs you to the pages dealing with this topic as well as the AWERB information and Animal Statistics.
- The Governance Team lists the team members and their roles.
- Governance FAQ's can be clicked to access the Frequently Asked Questions section.